DEPOSIT E256 : GRAZIERS' ASSOCIATION OF NEW SOUTH WALES

Inclusive dates: 1890 - 1974 (printed material from 1883)

Quantity: 275 feet

Note: The first sheepowners' association was formed in 1888 but in the two years following it drew little support until 9 July 1890 when the Pastoralists' Union of New South Wales was formed at a meeting attended by representatives from most districts of New South Wales. Branches were set up the same year and district committees were appointed during 1891. In October 1916 the name of the body was changed to the Graziers' Association of New South Wales.

On 1 January 1978 the Association merged with the United Farmers' and Woolgrowers' Association to form the Livestock and Grain Producers' Association of New South Wales.

The Pastoralists' Union of New South Wales was a foundation member of the Pastoralists' Federal Council of Australia formed in 1891, which changed its name to the Graziers' Federal Council in 1919. The Australian Woolgrowers' Council was formed in that year and in 1960 the two bodies amalgamated to become the Australian Woolgrowers' and Graziers' Council. In 1979 the A.W.G.C. united with the Australian Wool and Meat Producers' Federation, the Australian Farmers' Federation, the Australian Wheatgrowers' Federation, the Cattlemen's Union of Australia and the Australian National Cattlemen's Council to form the National Farmers' Federation.
