Australian Institute of Marine and Power Engineers (Federal Council)

Quantity: 61 running feet

Note: In June 1880, a meeting of certificated marine engineers in Sydney formed the Sydney Association of Marine Engineers; from this group came the impetus to form the Australasian Institution of Marine Engineers in c. January 1881. In August 1922 the title was amended to the Australasian Institute of Marine and Power Engineers, and in November 1924 to the Australian Institute of Marine and Power Engineers, the New Zealand District having gained autonomy from that date.

Description: Minutes of meetings of Federal Council 1920-1961, minutes of meetings of the Maritime Transport Council 1935-1950, minutes of meetings of the Maritime Industry Commission 1942-1949, copies of minutes and agendas of the Committee of Advice 1954-1962, of the Accommodation Committee July 1954-1962, minutes of meetings of the Co-ordinating Committee of the Merchant Service Guild of Australasia and the A.I.M.P.E. 1949-1963; copies of standing orders of Federal Council and Assembled Council of the A.I.M.P.E.; correspondence between Head Office and Newcastle, Sydney, Queensland, Melbourne, Adelaide and Western Australia Districts 1945-1965, correspondence of the Industrial and Accommodation Committee 1946-1965; miscellaneous correspondence from companies on matters other than accommodation 1940-1965; correspondence on complaints of members re conditions on ships, miscellaneous head office correspondence 1944-1965. Financial papers, including cash books, ledgers and journals of Head Office and other miscellaneous financial material 1922-1965; arbitration material, including transcripts of award cases, logs of claims, material relating to awards for Tugs, and other miscellaneous arbitration material relating to disputes between the A.I.M.P.E. and various shipping companies; printed material, including back issues of "On Watch", and files of copy for the publication; Lloyds Register of Shipping 1936-1955; Transactions of the Institute of Marine Engineers (U.K.); Transactions of the Institute of Naval Architects other printed matter relating to the maritime industry and to the Australian economy and labour force. Printed Annual Reports of the A.I.M.P.E., and other miscellaneous material.
