DEPOSIT E247 : FEDERATED IRONWORKERS' ASSOCIATION OF AUSTRALIA,
VICTORIAN BRANCH

Inclusive Dates: 1951 - 1973

Quantity : 12 r. ft.

Note : The F.I.A. was founded in Sydney by delegates from N.S.W. and Victoria on 25 September 1908 and the Amalgamated Society of Ironworkers of Victoria became the Victorian branch of the F.I.A. The Victorian section of the Federated Wireworkers' & Galvanisers' Union of Australia was absorbed into the Victorian branch in 1940 and in 1942 members of the Amalgamated Iron Foundries Employees' Union of Australia were also absorbed. After amalgamation with the A.E.M.W.F. the Victorian branch (F.I.A.) became Victorian No. 1 branch and the Victorian branch of the A.E.M.W.F. became the Victorian No. 2 branch. In 1945 the Victorian No. 1 and No. 2 branches merged. R.M. Lundberg was the Victorian branch Secretary in the period of these records.

Description : These records consist of office files.

Note on arrangement: These records arrived in bundles marked A-E, F-G etc; Australian Consolidated Industries Ltd; A.C.T.U.; Australian Paper Manufacturers Ltd; Construction firms; Department of Supply; Imperial Chemical Industries of Australia Ltd; Legal; Melbourne Trades Hall Council; Metal Trades Employers' Federation; Metal Trades Federation, Victorian branch; Miscellaneous; National Conferences; National Council; Oil Industry; State Electricity Commission. They were left in these groups and the files within were listed alphabetically. All are 1 file unless otherwise stated.
