Note:                              At an early age G. McDonald joined the Eureka Youth League rising to membership of the Victorian State Committee and subsequently joining the Communist Party. He fell into disfavour in the Communist Party because of "left adventurism and individualism" and made contact with the Fourth International (Aust. Section) operating from Sydney. He was eventually expelled from the Communist Party in 1961 and joined the A.L.P., becoming the founding President of the Diamond Creek Branch. He has shifted his position in the A.L.P. from the left to the right. He joined the B.W.I.U. and eventually became their organiser for the Victorian Branch. He left the B.W.I.U. to become Secretary of the Fuel & Fodder Union. He has been an industrial officer in the Roof Tilers' Union, Hairdressers' Union, Wool & Basil Workers' Union, Bricklayers' Society, Mannequin & Models' Guild, Australian Association of Social Workers, Royal Victorian College of Nursing, and others.
