AUSTRALIAN MERCANTILE LAND AND FINANCE CO. LTD.

Inclusive Dates: 1865-1963

Quantity: 75 running feet

Note: This Company was registered in England on 5 November 1863, as the Australian Mortgage Land and Finance Co. Ltd., and changed its name to its present form in November 1910. The Company carries on business as a financial agency, stock and station agent and pastoral company with interests in New South Wales, Victoria and Queensland. Most of this collection consists of material relating to the station properties, chiefly in NSW, which the AML and F Co. Ltd. owned or in which it had an interest, rather than the general working of the Company itself. See also ANU Business Archives Deposits 75, 97 and 99, 132

Description: Ledgers; journals; cash books; station financial records; monthly returns (showing information re persons employed, stock, rainfall etc etc.) of some of the Company's stations; reappraisal of rentals of some of the Company's stations in W. Division of NSW between 1890 and 1904; information re income and working expenses of the Company's stations between 1893 and 1943, with some miscellaneous papers and some maps.
